About our Music Centres...

Our network of Music Centres has been providing musical opportunities for children and young people across Lancashire for over 50 years. They provide regular, after-school opportunities for young musicians of all levels of experience to play together in ensembles as well as offering group and individual tuition.

Membership of music centre ensembles costs only £45 per year, subsidised through our Music Hub funding from Arts Council England, and tuition starts from as little as £6.50 per lesson (based on a group lesson).

Enrol online at www.lancashiremusichub.co.uk/enrol or complete and return the forms at the back of this brochure.

Why Learn Music?

1. Music is fun!

All the other benefits of learning music aside, you should learn to play or sing because it's something enjoyable and you will possess a skill that many people wish they had.

2. Academic achievement

Studies show a direct link between academic, language and motor skill development and learning music, as it stimulates and strengthens certain parts of the brain.

3. Music relieves stress

Just like most activities you enjoy, playing music or singing is known to relieve stress. It can enhance your self-awareness and sense of accomplishment, making you feel more positive.

4. You can build your confidence and self-esteem

Mastering a new skill or learning that song you always loved is a great confidence boost. Learning to sing or play a musical instrument develops your sense of aspiration and achievement.

5. It's a social activity

You have more opportunities to meet people that share the same interests through taking part in ensembles, concerts and workshops. You develop life-skills such as how to listen and relate to others, and work as a team.

6. It will develop your creativity

Music stimulates the creative side of your brain and makes your mind open up towards new ideas and helps you express your emotions.

7. Learning music teaches discipline and responsibility

Learning to play or sing teaches you that the amount of effort you put into your practice will reflect in the way you sound. Mastering a new skill always takes time and patience.

Please return the application and medical consent forms at the back of this brochure and send them to Lancashire Music Service or apply online at: www.lancashiremusicclub.co.uk/enrol

You can join a Music Centre Ensemble at any time throughout the school year once you have completed and returned the enrolment forms.

Applications received after the deadline dates shown will be held and processed for the following terms intake.

Can I visit a Centre before joining?

Yes! Please contact the Head of Centre to arrange your visit. For centres and contact details please see page 3.

What if my child can't come to a lesson or ensemble session?

We do expect members to be committed but, if absence is unavoidable, please contact the Head of Centre and give as much notice as possible. Sessions or lessons missed due to short term illness or cancellation by the pupil cannot be refunded (see page 7 for terms and conditions).

How do I know how my child is getting on with their instrumental lessons?

All pupils are given a practice diary which they should keep up to date each week. There will be an ongoing assessment completed as part of a lesson in the Spring Term and a written report in the Summer Term and these will be available online for parents/carers to view or download. Further information will be provided by your child's tutor.

Exams

If your child would like to take an examination, please discuss this with their teacher as there are many options available.

Can my child hire an instrument?

We do have instruments available to hire and we also offer the loan of selected "endangered instruments" free of charge. The full list of instruments and payment options is on the application form on page 9. Some instruments may not be suitable for all children - please contact us or speak to the Head of Music Centre for advice.

What is the new General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) law?

New data protection rules mean that without your express consent, we will not be able to communicate with you in future about ongoing music matters, offers and our recommendations on how to help your child's musical development.

The new GDPR law came into force on 25th May 2018. We welcome these new changes as they strengthen all our privacy matters, giving each of us better protection over our own personal data; we as individuals can choose who we allow to communicate with us.

At Lancashire Music Service, in order to be able to provide you with advice and offers we will need your overt agreement to do so. Please give your consent on the application form. We will not share your information with any other organisation. You can always change your mind or amend your preferences at any time in the future but if we don't get your approval now, we won't be able to communicate with you.
